The red carpet was not deployed at the court Elysee, yet, the Republican Guard, has made his fanfare with fifty guards, more than usual. The press of at least a hundred journalists from all over the world was hoarded in a pool in the courtyard of the Elysee, in a continuous rain, and in the press room, as well as the White House press, having traveled with President Trump from Washington DC. This group of journalists were fed by their press officer at the American Embassy, "who had delicately brought them lunch boxes (Sandwich, and dessert), which was not the case for the many other international journalists, who had accumulated cafes at the press room machine to warm up the body.

Donald Trump arrived first aboard his armored vehicle, "The Beast", at the Elysee, alone, at 11h sharp. Following his meeting with President Macron, Melania arrived Trump, alone also on board another vehicle, Brigitte Macron.----- set the tone as early as Friday night. Indeed, the subject has been totally addressed, and quickly stifled this controversy, on this occasion of the commemoration of the armistice, which will be attended by Donald Trump tomorrow instead of the Arc de Triomphe on Elysee's fields, or is buried the Unknown Soldier. The sixteen other heads of state will also be present to celebrate this centenary. At 1:45 pm, the couple Presidentiel Trump left the Elysee aboard the "Beast" There was no press conference, no speech in front of the press or the White House or the International Press very present in number at the Elysee.

The first two ladies had the distinction of wearing navy suits, coordinated, in style and color, as if they had consulted before.

In the afternoon, Donald Trump, who was going to the American military cemetery in the Bois Belleau American cemetery in the north, canceled the trip because of bad weather! As for President Trump's agenda, he has already announced that he will not go to La Villette at the Peace Forum. "Do not give in to the temptations of division" While Europe, which he would like strong, is in bad shape, On the French side, the Elysee explains that "It is true that multilateralism is attacked, in crisis. It is also what motivates the president to fight, to preserve what seems to him essential to the construction of peace ". This is what President Macron has said, We must "give nothing to the sad passions, the temptations of division", during the celebration of the armistice with German Chancellor Angela Merkel, in the clearing of Rethondes.

TOMORROW SUNDAY 11 NOVEMBER FRANCE WILL CELEBRATE ARMISTICE AND SHOW PEACE A CENTURY YEARS AFTER 1918

France will welcome this Sunday the whole world (represented by seventy heads of state and their ministers of foreign affairs, as well as international organizations) to commemorate the end of a total war from 1914 to 1918, honor her heroes and the "Hairy" dead on the war chest and talk about peace around the Peace Forum.-----

At this time when President Macron, prone to the "multilateralism", face nationalist flights in Europe (Hungary, Ostrich and Italy recently), of the great chiefs of Etta like Vladimir Putin and Donald Trump, do not necessarily parade this opinion.

But the international ceremony that will take place tomorrow Sunday, November 11, 2018, takes dimensions outside the norm, because it will place Paris in the center of the world, visited and celebrated by more than seventy heads of state and governments. On this occasion, they will walk alongside the French President, Emmanuel Macron from the Elysee to the Arc-de-Triomphe, under a device more than 10,000 policemen and gendarmes, gigantic (Perimeter loop around the fields Elysees and surroundings). Once all gathered at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, they will be able to mark the centenary of the Armistice of the 14-18 war, to the sound of the cello of the American of Chinese origin Yo-Yo Ma who will play a sarabande from Bach or the European Union Orchestra, which will perform Ravel's Bolero. High point after a lunch between the great of this world at the Elysee. Then in the afternoon, will be officially launched, the Paris Forum on Peace at the Halle de la Villette.-----

The Elysee states that the President is returning to his role as head of state for international stature and diplomatic mediator in the World because "At a time when we see emerging authoritarian regimes throughout the world, the rise of nationalisms and of populism, he is attached to the fact that the defense of multilateralism can continue and find a particular resonance on the occasion of this summit "....
